THE LISTENING / READING SCRIPT

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/gap.html>

The Gap, Inc. is an American clothing and accessories retail chain based in San Francisco. It was founded in 1969 by Don G. Fisher and Doris F. Fisher. Don Fisher said: "I created Gap with a simple idea: to make it easier to find a pair of jeans. We remain committed to that basic principle." The company has four brands besides Gap: Banana Republic, Old Navy, Piperlime and Athleta. The Gap brand includes GapKids, babyGap and gapbody. The company employs roughly 135,000 people in nearly 3,500 stores worldwide. The chain's annual revenue is around $15 billion a year. It is currently the world's second largest clothing retailer. The company website outlines its philosophy: "The focus at Gap Inc. is pretty simple: customers, creativity, doing what's right, and delivering results. Together, we call it 'wearing your passion.'"

WARM UPS

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/gap.html>

1. BRAINSTORM CHAT: Write all the words you can think of about Gap on the board or on a piece of paper. Talk about these words with your partner(s).

2. GAP MORNING: Each student pretends to be an employee of Gap. They walk around the class and talk about the company and their job.

3. RUMOURS: Each student writes down a pretend rumour about Gap. They then walk around the class and talk to other students about their rumour.

4. GOOD AND BAD: Brainstorm good and bad things about Gap and write them on the board. Students talk about these in pairs.

5. TRUE OR FALSE: Students find out several facts about Gap. They write these down and add the same number of things about the company that are false. Students test each other on which of their points are true or false.

6. FACTS: In groups, students write down as many facts as they can about Gap. The winner is the group with the most facts. Teacher may wish to have groups share their facts to make sure they are real.

Main products
How to improve them
A brand new 'killer' product
How Gap is better than the competition
How to beat the competition

Part 2. Change partners and look at their project. Suggest improvements. Ask for advice on your project:

Part 3. Make a presentation on your project. Give it to the class. Vote the best projects.

GAP – ROLE PLAY 1

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/gap.html>

Role A – Gap CEO

You believe your company is the best in the world. It pays its workers very well and working conditions are great. Your company is very green – it cares about the environment. You think your levels of customer service are great. Disagree with person B, C and D.

Role B – Gap worker

You think it's a bad company to work for. You're very unhappy with pay, raises and bonuses. You are very unhappy with the working environment. You don't like the company's policy on the environment. You keep hearing profits are more important than customers. Disagree with A and C. Tell D the truth.

Role C – Gap customer

You are a customer of Gap. You used to think it was great, but not now. Its workers are always very rude. No one ever answers the phone. You are shocked about its policy on the environment. You think all staff should get less pay. You disagree with person A and B. Tell D the truth.

Role D – A journalist

You keep hearing bad things about Gap. You want to tell the world in your newspaper. You heard the CEO gets a huge bonus every year. You found a company memo saying profits are more important than the environment. You want to know why so many staff are ill. Find the truth.

GAP – ROLE PLAY 2

From: <http://www.businessenglishmaterials.com/gap.html>

Role A – Gap New Products Director

You have created a new product for Gap. You believe the new product will be the company's best ever. It will be a bestseller. There are people who do not agree with you. You need B, C and D on your side. Tell them why this is a product that will bring great things to Gap.

Role B – Gap Marketing Director

You think the company's new product is a really bad idea. It will give your company a really bad name. You think the New Products Director is trying to destroy the company. Try to get him/her to understand there's no way the new product will sell. Try to get person C and D on your side.

Role C – Gap Market Researcher

You have interviewed thousands of people about the new product. They don't like it or hate it. You think it will be successful if they make many changes. Tell the New Products Director he/she needs to change the product. You neither like nor trust person B. Disagree with him/her.

Role D – Gap Shareholder

You know a lot about Gap's new product. You are worried it will not sell and share prices will go down. You think A is crazy and must find a new job. You agree with everything B says. You don't agree with C. The new product should not go on the market.
